Experience

Alborghetti

March 2022 - November 2022
Title: Freelance Web Developer
and UX/UI Designer

Alborghetti is a startup currently in development that hired my freelance services to develop an e-commerce web app, which I'm developing from the ground up with React, Redux, HTML and Sass for the front-end, and also Firebase for the back-end and PayPal for the payment service.

EDteam

July 2019 - June 2020
Title: UX/UI Designer

During my time working for EDteam I helped with the development of a new UI for the platform, as well as conducting research on how their users use the platform to make changes for a better experience.
